Claim # 75.

Indian Article 11. Treaty of 14th June, 1866.
with Creek Indians.

(38)
The undersigned, Mary Marshall, a Freedman of the Creek Nation, married, and a loyal refugee, being duly examined and sworn, (He understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says: Whilst living on his place, near the Creek Agency, with his wife, Judy, a free woman, and sometime in the summer of 1863, he was taken, forcibly, by his master, Benj: Marshall, away from his home, and carried South, his wife, at the time making her escape to the Union Lines, where she remained in safety. That he succeeded in making his escape from his master in the Spring of 1864, and reached Fort Gibson, where he remained until the close of the War. This deponent further says, That at the time he was seized, and carried South by his master, as aforesaid, He owned and possessed, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property hereinafter enumerated - which property was, in most part, acquired through the labor of his wife, a free woman - and that he has never since recovered the same, or any part thereof. To Say:

7	Seven Indian Horses,	at $40. each	$ 280.00
1	One large Mule	" $225.	225.00
4	Four large Steers,	" $70. each	280.00
	Amount Carried Forward		$ 785.00

and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property set forth in his deposition, and in the manner stated by him. Further these deponents do not say.
